Submitted.

In connection with the amendments to the Army Regulation it is submitted that the Army act of 1911 being very general in certain respects the preparation a draft takes a lot of time moreover it being too elaborate much difficulty is experienced in preparing the ~~Army~~ draft.

As the original Army Regulation is based on the rules for the punishment of Crime in the U.S. Troops (Copy put up) it is submitted that if a revised copy of the same is obtained a lot of trouble & time could be saved. As it is not available in the Hqs. Bothams it is requested that the draft to go. put up may be kindly approved.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Submitted to His Highness.

47 These papers relate to an amendment on the suggestion of the Residency in letter No. 1713 dated 21st March 1912, of the Mysore Military Regulation, 1899. The Indian Articles of War having been repealed by the Indian Army Act of 1911 (VIII of 1911), references to the former Act in our Regulation have to be suitably changed. The new Indian Act also embodies a change in respect of the corporal punishment that may be inflicted on persons subject to military discipline. Under the older Act a maximum of 50 lashes could be inflicted. This has been reduced to 30 in the later Act. It is proposed to embody this change in our Regulation by amending paras 67 and 74 suitably.

52-From an examination of the procedure adopted in the case at the time of the passing of the M^y Regulation II of 1899 & the subsequent amendments it is seen that the Govt of India were invariably consulted, prior to their promulgation as law. When the Military Regⁿ of 1899 was about to be passed, a reference was made to the Res^y as to the necessity for the sanction of the Govt of India. The Res^y replied that the sanction of the Govt of India was not necessary (letter No 661 D 16-2-99). The Regⁿ was therefore passed into law. Subsequently the Resident intimated that the sanction of Govt of India was necessary & communicated the sanction of Govt of India in his letter no 3717 dated 23-8-1899. This Regⁿ II of 1899 was amended six times since then by Regⁿ V of 1900, IV of 01 I of 1905, IV of 05 II of 1907 & II of 1910. In The sanction of the Govt of India was obtained in every case. It therefore seems that in the present case also that the sanction of Govt of India is necessary, according to precedents. Such sanction may not be strictly required under art. 19 of the ~~last~~ Instrument of Transfer, but the opinion of the Res't in 1899 was that such sanction was necessary. This view has been followed since then.

SIR,

I am directed to refer to the letter from this office No. 2554, dated the 23rd May 1901, regarding the agreement for the effective control and discipline of the Imperial Service Troops maintained by the Mysore State when serving beyond the frontiers of the State.

2. The agreement specifies that His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore has embodied in the disciplinary law of the State, applicable to Imperial Service Troops when employed on active service, either within or without British India, the provisions mutatis mutandis, of the Indian Articles of War for the time being in force. Act V of 1869, the Indian Articles of War, was repealed by the Indian Army Act, 1911 (VIII of 1911), which came into force on the 1st January 1912. I am accordingly to request that the Darbar will be so good as to take early steps to embody in the military law of the State the provisions of the new Act with such modifications as may be con-

considered necessary.

(Received the amendment of the 23rd of 1913)

A Bill further to amend the Mysore

Military Regulation, 1899.

Regulation

Preamble

Whereas it is expedient to further amend the Mysore Military Regulation II of 1899, His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows:-

Amendment of paragraphs 1 & 36

1. For the words "Articles of war" occurring in paragraphs 1 and 36, the words "Army Act", 1911" shall be substituted.

Amendment of paragraph 67.

2. In No. 6 ^{under the} sub-heading "Non-commissioned Officers, Sowars and ~~Sowars~~ and in No. 4 ^{the} under sub-heading "Followers" of paragraph 67, for the figure "50" the figure "30" shall be substituted.

Amendment of paragraph 74.

3. In the first sentence of paragraph 74, for the figure "50" the figure "30" shall be substituted.

Statement of objects and reasons.

As the Indian Army Act, 1911, has repealed^e the Indian Articles of War, Act V of 1869, the references to the latter in the Mysore Military Regulation have been changed. Section 45 of the Indian Army Act, 1911, prescribes 30 lashes as the maximum limit of corporal punishment for certain offences. Paragraphs 67 and 74 of the Mysore Military Regulation which prescribe a maximum of 50 lashes have now therefore been amended so as to reduce that maximum to 30 lashes.
